

Says

What have we heard them say?
What can we imagine them saying?

The Lok Sabha comprises of a total of 545 seats.

Elections will be conducted by the Election Commission to fill 543 seats.

The remaining two seats are filled by nomination of representatives of the Anglo-Indian Community

Thinks

What are their wants, needs, hopes, and dreams?
What other thoughts might influence their behavior?

The people have the ability to elect their government, which is responsible for carrying out their wishes.

Elections are a crucial practice in a democratic society.

The Lok Sabha has certain powers that make it more powerful than the Rajya Sabha.

Political behaviour is the subset of human behaviour.

It includes politics and power.

The Elections provide the power in the hands of the people.

The people want some changes in the election.

They can choose who will make law for them.

They can choose who will form the government and take major decisions.

Does

What behavior have we observed?
What can we imagine them doing?

Feels

What are their fears, frustrations, and anxieties?
What other feelings might influence their behavior?